

SOULFUL PATH PRESENTS

JaChe Peaks, LMSW

SPEAKER • FACILITATOR • SOCIAL WORK CAREER STRATEGIST

Practical conversations that move people from insight to action.

Mental wellness • Social work careers • Professional growth • Systems and venture building

Available for keynotes, interactive workshops, panels, podcasts, classrooms, conferences, and organizational training.

MEET THE SPEAKER

A social worker who connects people, practice, and possibility.

JaChe Peaks, LMSW, is a social worker, therapist, career coach, speaker, and founder of Soulful Path. Her work sits at the intersection of mental wellness, career development, community impact, and practical systems change. Drawing from experience across behavioral health, individual therapy, healthcare, dialysis, corrections, crisis support, community partnerships, and career coaching, JaChe helps audiences see both the breadth of the social work profession and the possibilities that exist beyond traditional roles.

Her speaking style is conversational, direct, reflective, and action-oriented. She creates space for honest discussion while helping participants identify patterns, challenge limiting assumptions, and leave with tools they can actually use. Whether she is speaking to students, social workers, helping professionals, community leaders, or organizational teams, JaChe translates complex professional and emotional experiences into accessible next steps.

Core expertise

- Social work career exploration, advancement, and professional transitions
- Burnout, career fatigue, boundaries, and sustainable helping
- Mental wellness, resilience, and practical coping strategies
- Youth-athlete identity, emotional wellness, resilience, and life planning beyond sports performance
- Building resources, programs, systems, and ventures around unmet community needs
- Healthcare, dialysis, corrections, behavioral health, and nontraditional social work pathways
- Career readiness, self-advocacy, confidence, and professional identity

Credentials

- Licensed Master Social Worker, State of Georgia
- Master of Social Work, Georgia State University — Advanced Standing; specialization in Community Partnerships
- Bachelor of Social Work, Georgia State University — Magna Cum Laude
- Certification in Nonprofit Management & Social Enterprise
- Founder & CEO, Soulful Path

Best suited for schools, colleges and universities, social-service organizations, healthcare teams, nonprofits, conferences, youth programs, and professional-development audiences.

SIGNATURE SPEAKING EXPERIENCES

Designed to be relevant, interactive, and immediately useful.01 Beyond the Caseload: Building Resources, Systems & Ventures

An interactive experience that challenges social workers to look beyond direct service, identify gaps affecting the populations they serve, and design resources, programs, partnerships, or ventures that respond to those needs.

Ideal for: social work conferences, universities, professional associations, entrepreneurship events, and emerging leaders.

02 Soulful Career Rest

A reflective and practical workshop for helping professionals who feel burned out, disconnected from their work, or unsure whether they need rest, boundaries, a new specialty, or a larger career transition.

Ideal for: social workers, clinicians, healthcare professionals, employee-resource groups, and wellness programs.

03 The Many Paths of Social Work

A career-exploration session that expands participants' understanding of the profession and helps them connect their education, strengths, values, lifestyle goals, and interests to traditional and nontraditional social work pathways.

Ideal for: BSW/MSW programs, student organizations, career days, new graduates, and early-career professionals.

04 More Than an Athlete: Identity, Mental Wellness & Life Beyond Sports

An interactive youth-athlete workshop that helps participants separate their personal identity from athletic performance, strengthen emotional wellness and resilience, practice self-advocacy, and begin planning for purpose, education, relationships, and life beyond the field.

Ideal for: football camps, youth sports organizations, school athletic programs, coaches, student-athletes, and athlete-development initiatives.

05 Mental Wellness & Sustainable Helping

A practical conversation about stress, emotional overload, professional boundaries, coping strategies, and the habits helping professionals need to support others without losing themselves.

Ideal for: healthcare, human services, nonprofits, schools, community organizations, and professional teams.

Custom programs

Sessions may be customized around career readiness, mental wellness, burnout prevention, youth development, workplace wellness, resilience, self-advocacy, goal setting, life transitions, social work entrepreneurship, or the needs of a specific audience. Virtual and in-person formats are available.

UPCOMING FEATURED ENGAGEMENT • “More Than an Athlete” at AMG Elite Football Camp — supporting youth athletes in building identity, emotional wellness, confidence, resilience, and goals beyond sports performance.

FEATURED MEDIA

Podcast guest appearances

JaChe has been invited to discuss licensure, career development, correctional mental health, purpose, and the role of social workers across healthcare and home-care settings.

DATE	PODCAST	FEATURED CONVERSATION
May 14, 2024	Journey to Licensure	Program Success & the Journey to Licensure
April 28, 2025	6 Figure Social Worker	Career Coaching for Social Workers
May 12, 2025	Journey to Licensure	Career Coaching, Correctional Mental Health & Purpose with JaChe Peaks, LMSW
April 2026	Just Peachy Podcast	Through the Eyes of a Social Worker in Home Care

Interview and podcast themes

- The realities and possibilities of building a career in social work
- Licensure preparation, professional growth, and life after licensure
- Career coaching, burnout, salary conversations, and purposeful transitions
- Correctional mental health and nontraditional social work roles
- Healthcare, home-care, dialysis, and human-centered support
- Youth-athlete identity, emotional wellness, resilience, and life beyond sports
- Building Soulful Path and creating resources around unmet needs

Available for podcast interviews, expert commentary, panels, guest lectures, and media conversations.

BRING JACHE TO YOUR AUDIENCE

Booking & engagement information

JaChe is available for virtual and in-person engagements originating from the Atlanta, Georgia area. Every engagement begins with a conversation about the audience, desired outcomes, program format, and level of customization.

Available formats

- Keynotes and featured talks
- Interactive workshops and professional-development sessions
- University lectures, classroom visits, and career-day programs
- Youth-athlete camps, sports programs, and player-development workshops
- Conference panels, moderated conversations, and fireside chats
- Webinars and virtual trainings
- Podcast, media, and expert-interview appearances
- Custom organizational and community programs

Starting investment

Schools, universities & community organizations

Starting at $300

Corporate & professional workshops

Starting at $500

Custom community and partnership projects

Custom quote

Final pricing depends on program length, audience size, preparation, customization, travel, delivery format, and scope. Deposits and a signed agreement may be required to reserve a date.

Booking contact

EMAIL

info@soulfulpathga.com

PHONE

\(404\) 673-5719673-5719)

WEBSITE

TheSoulfulPath.com

Support for today. Hope for tomorrow. Healing for the future.

JACHE PEAKS, LMSW • FOUNDER & CEO, SOULFUL PATH